*The Fund operates under a contractual expense limitation that expires on September 30, 2020. The fund's net expense ratio reflects a permanent waiver of a portion of the T. Rowe Price Associates, Inc. management fee charged to the fund. This waiver is an amount sufficient to fully offset any acquired fund fees and expenses related to investments in other T. Rowe Price mutual funds. T. Rowe Price funds would be required to seek regulatory approval in order to terminate this arrangement. As a result of other class' expense limitations, T. Rowe Price Associates, Inc. waived fund-level expenses ratably across all classes. Figure is equivalent to the annual Operating Expense ratio.
†Portfolio Turnover represents 1 year period ending 12/31/18.

Current performance may be lower or higher than the quoted past performance, which is not a reliable indicator of future performance. INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

The fund seeks to provide high income and some capital appreciation.

Uses an asset allocation strategy to build a broadly diversified portfolio of domestic and foreign debt instruments, including government and corporate bonds; mortgage-backed, commercial mortgage-backed, and asset-backed securities; and preferred stocks.

May invest up to 65% of assets in noninvestment-grade securities and up to 50% in non-U.S. dollar-denominated foreign securities, including those from emerging market countries.

Fund's weighted average maturity is expected to be between four and 15 years.

BENEFITS AND RISKS

Offers higher yield potential than money market or shorter-term bond funds but with more volatility. Yield and share price will vary with interest rate changes.

If interest rates rise significantly from current levels, bond fund total returns will decline and may even turn negative in the short term.

High-yield bonds carry greater default risk than higher-rated bonds along with greater liquidity risk.

To the extent the fund holds foreign bonds, it will be subject to special risks, including potentially adverse political and economic developments overseas, greater volatility, lower liquidity, and the possibility that foreign currencies will decline against the dollar. Investments in emerging markets are subject to the risk of abrupt and severe price declines.

 U.S. government agency securities are issued or guaranteed by a U.S. government agency, and may include conventional pass-through securities and collateralized mortgage obligations; unlike Treasuries, government agency securities are not issued directly by the U.S. government and are generally unrated but may have credit support from the U.S. Treasury (e.g., FHLMC and FNMA issues) or a direct government guarantee (e.g., GNMA issues). Therefore, this category may include rated and unrated securities.

Definitions

Beta: A measure of market risk of an investment option that shows how responsive the investment is to a given market index, such as the Standard & Poor's 500 Index. Diversification exhibits may not add to 100% due to exclusion or inclusion of cash.

Sources for credit quality: Moody's Investors Service; if Moody's does not rate a security, then Standard & Poor's (S&P) is used as a secondary source. When available, T. Rowe Price will use Fitch for securities that are not rated by Moody's or S&P. T. Rowe Price does not evaluate these ratings, but simply assigns them to the appropriate credit quality category as determined by the rating agency. T. Rowe Price uses the rating of the underlying investment vehicle for credit default swaps.
